President's Message By Gary Bloch

Dear Temple Members:

As we close the books on the secular year 2019, I would like to thank all the folks who helped make it such a special year at Temple Beth Sholom:

Our Programming and Fundraising committees planned a variety of successful events such as the Silbert-Bernstein Dinner, Rabbi Grossman's Installation, Purim and Hanukkah parties, the Happy Purim Shalach Manot fundraiser, the Make-My-Day Raffle, the Book of Remembrance, the Temple Calendar, Community Shabbat Dinners, Yard Sales and others.

Our Social Action Committee installed a Tzedakah Box near the main temple entrance, organized our High Holiday Food Collection for Aunt Dot's Kitchen at Wellspring and are now planning the Hat and Glove Collection during Hannukah.

Our Ritual Committee oversaw the most meaningful High Holiday Services we have had in years, officiated by Rabbi Grossman and his son, Cantor Josh Grossman. It also undertook the replacement of our machzerim and the repairing of our existing Torahs.

Thank you to all the families who sponsored our dinners and events, helping to keep them affordable for the rest of us. Also to everyone who donated the funds necessary to replace our machzerim and repair our Torahs.

Thank you to everyone who served as ushers or gabbais during our religious services and who kept us safe by monitoring our entrances.

And most of all, I would like to thank Rabbi David Grossman and his wife Diane for returning to our community to help us grow and thrive together in the years to come.

TODAH RABAH TO EVERYONE! AND HERE'S TO YOUR CONTINUING SUPPORT IN 2020...

Rabbi Grossman has begun a three part series of programs relating to the Shoah (Holocaust) – “Reflections on the Holocaust.” They take place on the following Wednesday evenings at 7:00 PM in the Asnes Chapel Lounge.

The first program on October 30 was entitled “Who Can Forgive?”

The second program is scheduled for November 13, in commemoration of Kristallnacht – The Night of Broken Glass. Historical and personal reflections on Kristallnacht will be facilitated by Dr. Sarah Leonard, Professor of History at Simmons University.

The third program is scheduled for November 20: “Moral Responsibility and Moral Ambivalence: Primo Levi on the 'Gray Zone'.” This program will be facilitated by Dr. Diane Grossman, Professor of Philosophy at Simmons University, a/k/a our wonderful Rebbetzin.

A Message From
Rabbi David Grossman

Dear Friends:

We have just begun the glorious task of reading the Torah. Our first parsha, Breishit, has the famous verse, "vayomer Elohim na'aseh Adawm," "God said, 'Let us make Man.'" Rashi, the great explicator of Torah text, explains that the plural, "Let us," is used to indicate that before creating Adam God sought the counsel of the angels. Yet, given the infinite wisdom of God, seeking counsel would seem to be totally unnecessary. Rashi tells us that God did so only to teach us that, regardless of how wise one may be, one should always be ready to listen to and take heed from the advice of others, even if their power or knowledge is not equal to ours. A vain person would consider accepting advice from anyone of lesser status as degrading and demeaning.

Other commentators point out that an arrogant person not only fails to benefit from others' opinions, but by his or her rejection of Rashi's interpretation of "Let us make Man," he or she is left with no alternative but to explain the words "Let us" as referring to a plurality of gods. This is because, if the Creator was not seeking the advice of His inferiors, then He must have been requesting the participation of an equal or equals. This possibility borders on support of idolatry. That vanity can lead one to idolatry, to a violation of the very first Commandment, makes clear how grievous and dangerous a character flaw vanity is.

Another method of Torah study is the Midrash, an Oral Tradition that runs concurrently with the written Torah. A Midrash on these very same four words tells us that when God sought the counsel of the angels on creating Adam, the first human, two opposing opinions were offered. The angel of Chesed (kindness) and the Tzedek (justice) were in favor of Man's creation, because Man is by nature kind and just. The angel of Emet (truth) and the angel of Shalom (peace) opposed Man's creation, arguing that human beings are deceitful and argumentative. God then cast the angel of truth down to earth and created humans with no further opposition. A commentator asks of this Midrash, "Why was there no opposition? The angel of peace remained to object." He answers the question he posed by noting that "It must be that once truth is cast aside, it is simple to achieve peace."

Mi Shebeirach – Prayer for Healing

Temple Beth Sholom maintains a listing of members, relatives and friends who are in need of Mi Shebeirach prayers to comfort their physical, emotional or spiritual challenges. This prayer and listing of names are recited at all of the Temple's religious observances.

If you wish to add someone's name to this listing, you may contact the Temple Office or visit our website, www.tbshull.org to fill out the form online.

Once you submit the form, the name will be included in our listing for a period of one month (or until you advise the Temple Office that the prayer is no longer necessary). After one month, you will be required to contact the Temple Office to maintain the listing for an additional month (and every subsequent month thereafter).

Temple Beth Sholom is pleased to offer this service to our general community. We depend on those availing themselves of the service to help us keep the list current and accurate. Thank you.

Tzedakah means giving in the form of “charity” or “philanthropy,” as in giving aid, giving to the poor or giving to a worthy cause, as a form of justice, righteousness, and/or empathy. It is an act of giving that is for everyone, no matter one’s financial status.

The Temple Beth Sholom community was recently asked to donate food during the Days of Awe, or High Holidays. It is customary to give tzedakah for the poor during this season and we asked for donations of food with the idea of giving it directly to Aunt Dot’s Kitchen --the food pantry at Wellspring, which services local communities. We would like to say the Temple community came through in a big way. Once the food was sorted and checked for expiration, over 35 bags of groceries were donated and delivered to Wellspring, enough to stuff the bed of a large pick-up truck! Wonderful!

The season of Hanukkah will soon be upon us, with the month of Kislev fast approaching, and we are asking when you attend the Temple Hanukkah event on December 28, that you bring hats, gloves, and scarves which we will again donate to Wellspring for distribution to those in need during the cold winter months.

Finally, a Social Action Committee (SAC) report on the Tzedakah Box near the main entrance to the Temple: the destinations of the donations may change from time to time and we will let you know when there is a certain focus, or when a donation has been made. It was decided at the September Temple board meeting to direct the current donations towards the Hanukkah “warming” efforts. So, please continue to contribute with this new focus and continue to practice Tikkun Olam, or fixing/repairing the world!

Submitted by Patrick Guiney and Gabriel Ben-Yosef, Co-Chairs of the SAC.

At all Friday Evening Shabbat Services there is an opportunity for anyone observing a Yahrzeit of a loved one to share with the congregation a few memories of that person. We hope this will help keep the individual and collective memories of our loved ones alive in all of our hearts. Please come and share those special memories.

Also, it is a tradition to commemorate the Yahrzeit of a loved one's passing by reciting Kaddish. To ensure a minyan is available on the appropriate date, please contact the Temple Office.

This Midrash captures the tragedy of the human condition. Too often, peace has been achieved only by turning away from the truth. A genuine and lasting peace can result only when truth remains intact.

The wonder of the mitzvah of Torah study is evident in the way we examine those four small words from the beginning of the Torah. As we embark on this never-ending journey through the Torah, may we together gain new insights and always experience the excitement of immersing ourselves in Torah study: "L'asok b'divray Torah."

The Torah and other subjects are the focus of our weekly study sessions, Wednesdays at 7:00-8:15 PM.
