JAFFA GATE

Enter the Old City through the Jaffa Gate, one of the most beautiful and important gates among the gates of the Ottoman city wall from the 16th century.

THE OLD CITY OF JERUSALEM

The Old City From Above: Climb to the rooftops to see and discuss the ties and tensions between the different faith groups and communities of the Old City. From this one spot, we'll look out over the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, venerated by Christian groups as the burial place of Jesus; the golden Dome of the Rock, which is sacred to Islam; and the Jewish Quarter's famous Hurva Synagogue.

THE CARDO

Continue to the Cardo, the main street of Roman-controlled Jerusalem and its spectacular Byzantine-era columns.

THE BROAD WALL

Stand by King Hezekiah's Broad Wall, a massive wall built to protect Jerusalem from invasion 2,700 years ago.

THE JERUSALEM ARCHAEOLOGICAL PARK

The Jerusalem Archaeological Park is a large-scale excavation that has uncovered vital parts of ancient Jerusalem. A particular highlight is to walk on the Southern Wall steps used by Jewish pilgrims to enter the Temple, 2,000 years ago. But there is much else to see, including Robinson's Arch, the remains of a major Second Temple-period street, and drainage tunnels used by Jewish fighters hiding from the Roman invaders.

WESTERN WALL

No visit to Israel is complete without experiencing the Kotel (Western Wall), widely considered Judaism's holiest site. Each year, over one million notes containing prayers and wishes are placed in the cracks of the wall. We'll discuss the wall's historical and contemporary importance and experience its unique atmosphere.

Going Under, Going Deeper: Explore the Western Wall Tunnel, the underground continuation of the Kotel, and examine important archaeological discoveries that are revising our understanding of daily life in ancient Jerusalem.

LUNCH

The Best Falafel in the World! Right Here in the Old City. The battle for the best street food in Jerusalem's Old City is tough. Take your choice from whatever option catches your eye with lunch (not included in package.)
