Vol. 3, No. 10 | June 2025

Rabbi David Grossman

Rabbi Joshua Grossman

President Patrick Guiney

From the Rabbi's Office

We welcome June as the month that transitions all of us into our summer season. Many of us at TBS do so with a feeling that can be best described with a rarely used term, anticipatory nostalgia. This is a perfect time to consider and remember some of the far, far too many to list unique and exciting events and gatherings we had this past year. In doing so, rather than feelings of sadness of the days gone by, we hope that we might be excited about what comes next.

Thankfully, and with God's blessing, our holiday celebrations will come around again in their due seasons. Events that brought us joy, engagement and satisfaction, like our clubs, special celebrations, discussion groups and outings will, of course, be an integral part of next season's schedule as well. Weekly and all holiday services, with guests and themes, will also continue to be central to our TBS community. Those happenings that we loved, we will look for ways to enhance and grow. As always, since this is our Shul, there is always space for a welcomed word of suggestion or ideas for future direction.

In the more immediate future, we have a full and fantastic upcoming month of June. Among other dates in this bulletin, I want to extend an invitation to June 7th, our final Nosh and Learn of the season. A mere few days after our Shavuot celebration, study session, and services including Yizkor, we will begin Shabbat morning with refreshments (of course) and a show-and-tell session. We ask that you bring with you or simply prepare to speak about an item that holds any type of value to you. We plan to discuss how our beloved Judaism allows, and even favors, owning material goods, so long as we possess them rather than being possessed by them.

On a personal note, I wish to express my gratitude for so many who made this past TBS season one so filled with success, joy, and meaning. I speak of those including, but not limited to, our Temple officers, committee heads, building caretakers, kitchen help, administrative support, technical and electronic correspondence experts, and everyone who helps make every gathering and event both directly and behind the scenes a time of closeness and community. Where would we be without you?

May we all come to realize a summer of happiness, health, and peace. We look forward to seeing everyone soon.

B'Shalom, Rabbis David & Joshua

From the President

June is busting out all over...and Temple Beth Sholom has many things to do where we can come together this month like at a clambake, but without the clams...and starting with Shabbat. Isaiah taught us that shabbat should be an Oneg. Oneg means "delight" or "pleasure". As it should be. This precious day of rest is given to us and, from Mt. Sinai to Hull, we gather to receive the words of Torah in our "Mishkan". Make it a point to be part of the minyan so the divine presence can dwell amongst us. Check the weekly emails for dates and times.

Looking past Shabbat, join in on the study during the first evening of Shavuot (and bring your appetite) on June first. Remember those who came before us during the Yizkor service on the morning of June third. We have a wonderful TBS Sports Breakfast this year on Father's Day with our guest, Joe Castiglione from the Red Sox. The TBS Annual Meeting is this month, and we round out June with the Silbert-Bernstein Dinner. Please make an effort to purchase tickets...like a Chicago voter! (Many times, even the departed). Please also add your listings to and order the next Temple Calendar.

We recently added an alarm system to the TBS building, and we are in the process of adding additional security features to our large Temple windows, such as in the Chapel. We are also pushing forward with needed repairs to the front portico of the TBS building. There are multiple people to thank for these efforts, such as Karen Augenstern, Shmuel Ferency, Steven Greenberg, and Harvey Wolf to name a few so far. If you would like to donate and see your name added to the Portico, to help cover repair costs, please let me know.

Patrick Guiney, President

Programming

Our Lag B'Omer Friday, May 16 at Wampanoag State Park was a great success - an invigorating hike followed by a tasty barbecue, good conversations and laughs, a few attempts at archery, and some learning. A special thank you to Patrick Guiney, Harriet Andler, Alan Colman, Richie Albert, Ruthi and Michael Freeman, Rabbi David and Rabbi Joshua, and Augie as well as all who participated for helping to make this happen!

Monday, May 19 Jewish Heritage Night at the Red Sox TBS members enjoyed a Red Sox victory over the Mets!

Some of our members enjoyed a Hadar in Boston concert event with Joey Weisenberg, Yoni Avi Battat and Richie Barshay on Wednesday, May 21 at Temple Israel of Boston.

Temple Beth Sholom 5786 Calendar

The Temple Calendar 5786 (September 2025 – September 2026) production is now in progress!

Now is your chance to participate in this super temple-wide activity! There is a tremendous amount of work preparing the Temple Calendar; including religious holidays and Temple events for the upcoming year; as well as congregant's birthdays, anniversaries and yahrzeits, plus many lovely business ads from area merchants who generously support the Calendar.

Your support is needed to make this calendar a financial success. If you have previously been part of the annual calendar, please let us know you would like to continue your participation! If you haven't yet participated, we are looking forward to hearing from you and including your special dates!

Contact the Temple office (781)-925-0091 if you would like to support this activity, whether by including your special dates, or by placing an ad for your business!

You are cordially invited to become part of the Honor Roll

The Honor Roll board, located in the hallway near the Asnes Chapel, displays name plaques of many wonderful people. The Honor Roll has been in existence for over 60 years. It was created by many of our founding members. New Honor Roll members will be able to view your engraved nameplate when they are affixed to the Honor Roll board. The Honor Roll can also include names of parents and grandparents who are no longer with us. It also can include couples who have lost their spouse. This is a loving way to keep a loved one's name alive.

ANNUAL HONOR ROLL MEMBERSHIP is available for a donation of $108.00 and is automatically renewed every year in the spring.

PERMANENT HONOR ROLL MEMBERSHIP is also available for a one-time donation of $1,800.00.

MULTIPLE HONOR ROLL MEMBERSHIPS are available for those wishing to add additional nameplates in honor of or in memory of loved ones.

TO ENROLL IN THE HONOR ROLL or for more information please email the Temple Office at templebethhull@gmail.com or call the Temple Office at 781-925-0091
